

S.S.S. NATURE'S TONIC

The very great majority of persons need a tonic in the Spring or early Summer. The system undergoes a change at this season and the entire physical machinery is disturbed. The general bodily weakness, a tired, worn-out feeling, lack of appetite, poor digestion, a half sick feeling and a general run-down condition of the system, show that the blood is weak or anemic, and a blood purifying tonic is needed to build up the damaged system and enrich the blood. The use of S. S. S. at this time may save you from a long spell of sickness, and it will certainly prepare you for the long, hot Summer. Many people have put off using a tonic until the system became so weakened and depleted it could not successfully throw off disease germs, and have paid for the neglect a spell of fever, malaria or some other debilitating sickness. S. S. S. is Nature's ideal tonic. It is a composition of the extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks which science and experience have proven are best fitted for a tonic to the human system. It contains no minerals of any kind and is therefore perfectly safe for persons of any age. S. S. S. tones up the stomach and digestion, aids the system of that tired, worn-out feeling, and imparts vigor and strength to every part of the body. It purifies and enriches the blood, stimulates the secreting and excreting members to better action, quiets the overstrained nerves, and makes one feel better in every way.

A Camera in the Stomach.

Perhaps the most remarkable of the recent inventions in the medical line is an apparatus by means of which the stomach may be photographed from within. It is the discovery of a Munich doctor, and is thus described in action: "The camera is actually swallowed by the patient, and when it reaches its destination the interior of the stomach is illuminated by a small electric lamp attached to the apparatus. At the bottom of the camera is wound on a photographic film 20 inches long and a quarter of an inch wide. The physician pulls a cord which runs the film past the lens, the electric lamp is turned on, and the impressions made on the sensitive film. The procedure is repeated until the requisite number of pictures have been taken."

Vinegar Biscuits.

Take two quarts flour, one large tablespoon lard or butter or chicken fat, 1½ tablespoons vinegar, one teaspoon soda, stirred well into the vinegar, then add the flour. Beat two eggs lightly and add to this. Make a dough with warm water stiff enough to roll out. Cut with biscuit cutter to thickness of one inch. Bake in quick oven.

Danish Rullepoese.

Get a thin flank of beef for an outer covering—any size from two pounds up. Spread it out and put on it small pieces of lean beef and fat pork alternately, to this add pepper, salt, paprika, allspice or poultry-seasoning, and, last, a very little finely-minced onion. Roll into as compact cylindrical shape as possible, sew it up very tight, and tie strong cord around it. Soak in brine for some days, or weeks, if the weather permits. Then boil for four hours, after which put it under a heavy press until cold. It is good sliced as cold meat or for sandwiches.

New Science Announced.

A new science is announced which is more fantastic than palmistry. It is taking forecasts from the organs of speech. A French paper, which has analyzed our stock of knowledge by announcing the birth of the so-called science, declares that a long tongue indicates that the possessor should prosper; a narrow tongue, the gift of divination; a short but large tongue, a good lover; and a long and broad tongue, that the possessor will make many voyages.

Jeffries to Have His Nose Burned Out

(By Ed. W. Smith.)

Chicago, June 9.—Well, the big battle is going to try it. He has signed to battle with the best man that can be found in Pittsburgh on the night of June 15 in a six-round affair.

If they can get somebody with some speed and a little bit of hitting power, along with a bit of courage and heart on the side, we will know something the next day. We will find out whether the overbearing Mr. Johnson is to continue lording it over the Caucasians or whether the black man's days are numbered pugilistically.

It is a little too much to expect that Jeffries will shine resplendent in a six-round affair or that a great deal may be told about his qualifications in a six-round bout.

We must be forced to the opinion in the light of Jeffries' stand regarding the Pittsburgh offer that he is serious and that all of his talk about fighting again is based on a strong personal conclusion that he has reached.

Jeffries is going to submit to an operation on his nose in a short time, and probably before the Pittsburgh affair comes off. It is not generally known that the big fellow can scarcely breathe at all through his nostrils because of a growth on both sides that practically closes them up. He explained this when here during his three weeks' stay, and stated then that while he didn't care to make any fuss over the matter publicly one of the results of his pugilistic reputation would be the operation and subsequent treatment. He made arrangements with a New York specialist to have the nose burned out, three treatments being necessary. The specialist guarantees that after these treatments are finished the growth will never reappear and that Jeffries' breathing will not be impaired in the future at all.

The appearance of Jeffries in the ring recalls the first time that he ever performed before a real metropolitan crowd and brings to mind the rather startling fact that the event took place some eleven years ago. As pugilists now go, a lapse of that length of time might mean a complete career, and that Jeffries is a young man past his prime. It was on August 25, 1898, that Jeffries attempted to stop two men, Bob Armstrong and Steve O'Donnell, in ten rounds each. He boxed the ten rounds with the negro, but refused to tackle the Australian, the claim being made that he had injured his arm in the first bout.

The metropolitan press, teeming with roasts for the big Californian, who had been pronounced a lobster of the brightest hue, and would have been termed the biggest lemon that ever came from California only at the time the lemon expression was not in general use. No man ever was soiled so severely as was Jeffries, and he felt crushed because of his poor showing.

Yet in his very next appearance he smashed Bob Fitzsimmons, then champion of the world, into complete collapse. That was the following June and was an event that fairly staggered the world.

Jeffries has had a strange career, and the strangest part of it all is that about four-fifths of the civilized world, looks upon him right now, at the age of 34 years, as the only man well equipped to upset the black's supremacy. And the best part of it is that Jeffries seems to be in earnest in his efforts to justify this confidence.

PIRATES PLAY GREAT BALL BUT THERE ARE OTHERS

New York, June 9.—The "fans" of this city have seen all of the teams in the National league in action. They have watched the Giants play against the west on their home grounds and it cannot be said that the Giants made a poor showing against the western clubs, but they certainly should have done better on their home grounds.

The locals earned an even break with the Cubs and Reds, took two out of three from the Cardinals, and won the only game that was played against the Pirates. Altogether, then the Giants won seven games and lost five, which is not bad. There were three postponements against the west, two with Pittsburgh and one with St. Louis. The team is playing better ball now than it did several weeks ago. It is steadily improving, and with the prospect of warmer weather those connected with the club believe that they will hit a faster stride. If this proves to be the case the Giants will undoubtedly hold their own against their opponents while away from home.

Pirates Strong Now, But—Only a slight glimpse was gained of the Pirates and an element of luck figured in the victory of the Giants," says a local baseball man. "The Pirates are strong. There is no getting away from that fact. In that one game, although defeated, they appeared to be capable of continuing the fast game that they have been playing right along."

"As yet Fred Clark's clan have not experienced a slump and precedent demands that each club have a slump some time during the season, no matter how slight. The slump may hit the Pirates while the Giants are going around the circuit and New York 'fans' hope that it will strike while the locals are in the Smoky City."

The Chicago Cubs will, of course, play somewhat faster ball on their home lot, but it may be that the Polo grounds will rise to the occasion and earn another even-break with Chance's team.

Roger Knows Giants' Weaknesses.—With Roger Bresnahan catching for the Cardinals they are bound to be a hard proposition for the Giants. Roger was a part of the McGraw brigade for so long that he knows what the weakness of each batter is. The Reds should not prove a very hard proposition.

The Giants are still suffering from the weakness that has bothered them all season. They are not hitting the ball with any consistency. When they do manage to crack out a safe hit it frequently comes after two are down and is wasted.

There is one thing that the "fans" of this city are glad to see. McGraw has switched his tactics. He is instructing the men to play the sacrifice game to a greater extent than in the past. Formerly the little manager appeared to be an advocate of the hit-out kind of play.

It is true that this was the more spectacular and when it was productive of victory was a style that was pleasing to the fans, but the sacrifice game is the game that counts.

MAY MEET TAYLOR IN MATCH RACE IN SEATTLE CAPTAIN GAYLE DULL OF MICHIGAN.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 8.—Taylor of Cornell, who broke the American record for the two-mile race at Cambridge Saturday, may have another chance to run against Captain Gayle Dull of Michigan. The Wolverine leader finished close behind him in the collegiate meet.

Taylor will compete at the Alaska-Yukon exposition this summer, and there it is possible that Dull will also enter the Pacific coast championships. Taylor will run for an eastern athletic club, but it is as yet undecided under what colors Dull will enter.

today, when San Francisco defeated Oakland in the twenty-fourth inning of a 1 to 0 contest. Wiggs for the locals and Henley for San Francisco were the opposing pitchers, and their performance was remarkable. Henley allowed nine hits, walked one and struck out six; Wiggs gave eleven hits, walked six and struck out thirteen. In the twenty-fourth inning the Zedlers, then up, hit for two bags. He took third base on a bad throw by D. Lewis and was tagged out at the plate, when Tennant tried the squeeze play after walking to first. Norbler flew out, but Tennant had reached third on Ziebler's out. Nick Williams, who went into left field in the twelfth, drove a long single to the right field and Tennant brought in the only run of the day. Score:

FAST GAME OF BALL PLAYED AT DRAPER
Salt Lake, June 8.—Saturday the Z. C. M. I. baseball team journeyed down to Draper and took the measure of the local players by a score of 4 to 2, in one of the fastest and most interesting games that has been played in Draper for a long time. Barber, for the "Big Store" team, pitched gilt edge ball and had the boys from Draper guessing all the time; and with the fast, snappy play of his team mates, the six Draper players reached first base; and out of the first 15 men that faced Barber but two reached the initial sack. A feature—and incidentally the only error the Z. C. M. I. boys made, and which netted Draper two runs, occurred in the seventh inning when Barber hit Stokes and the next man up hit to Gunn, who fumbled the ball and then picked it up and tried to knock the flag off the flag pole, and came very near doing it, for before the ball could be recovered both men had scored. The fielding feature of the game was a pretty running catch of a long fly by Brain. The lineup:

Z. C. M. I. Draper.
Young C Goates
Williams 1 B Crane
Barber P Crane
Williams 1 B Fitzgerald
Romney 2 B Day
Gunn 3 B Stokes
Blomquist S S Ballard
Fitzgerald L F Smith

JOCKEY JARRETT IS SUSPENDED
Salt Lake, June 8.—There was some crooked work at the race track yesterday afternoon and how the person or persons involved in the raw deal expected to "get away" with it is a mystery. It was so palpable that a child could see it, and as a result of the jobbery Jockey Jarrett was suspended by the judges. The incident was in the fourth race in which there was a field of fast starters. It included Booger Red, Blagg, Fore, Meddling Hannah and Marburg.

Jarrett was riding Booger Red. The race was at five furlongs and he looked like a clinch for Fore. Fore opened at 3 to 1, and closed at 5 to 1. Blagg opened at 4 to 1, but this last of a few minutes as he was immediately made the odds-on favorite. Everybody became suspicious and the judges concluded the following statement: "Jockey Jarrett was set down because of his dirty foul of Fore in the turn into the stretch. His foul appeared to be deliberate and inexcusable. His ride of Booger Red in the race was very unsatisfactory, and this in spite of his use of whip and spur in apparently endeavoring to outrun Fore in the stretch after he had lost the race through the delay caused by fouling Fore."

Jarrett's record at this meet is bad. He has been constantly intoxicated, and this was considered by the judges in his case, although, of course, his suspension was because of his work in the saddle. He was refused permission to accept any mounts other than those of J. H. Brannon, by whom he is employed, because of an unsatisfactory ride on Galvanic early in the meet."

FORD CARS REACH KANSAS CITY.
Kansas City, June 8.—The two Ford cars that are leading in the New York-to-Seattle race, reached here at 5:35 this evening. An hour later the Acme and Shawmut cars also arrived. The Ford cars were only a few minutes ahead at Glasgow, Mo., but reached the Missouri river ferry first, and in consequence the race cars were delayed. The racers will leave for the west early tomorrow.
